

Wild Narrative eMagazine

Welcome to Wild Narrative eMagazine

A place to learn, discover and become inspired about all things related to wildlife imagery.

My name is Josh, and I am the face behind Josh Blank Photography, Wild Narrative and now, Wild Narrative eMagazine. For those of you who have been following my work it will come as no surprise that I am passionate about photographing wildlife (big animals in particular) in a way that excites and inspires others to get outside, experience nature and perhaps learn to capture exciting wildlife imagery of their own. The beginning of 2024 saw me searching for new and more effective ways to connect with like-minded people, and in the process find a home for the images, stories and content that I am most proud of. Thus began the creation of Wild Narrative Magazine; a place to learn new photography techniques, discover exciting locations rich with wildlife and become inspired to get outdoors and experience the natural world. My aim is to provide a quarterly resource packed full of useful articles and captivating imagery to assist all of you who share the same passion.

So, without further ado, let's dive into edition 1!
